First National Traveller Mental Health Day 8th October 2020

National Traveller Mental Health Day is being organised to raise awareness and take action about the mental health crisis being experienced by Travellers across Ireland.

The National Traveller Mental Health Network are inviting both Travellers and non-Travellers to stand in solidarity and take part in the following events:

National Traveller Mental Health Day Mass 12.30 pm.
Celebrated by the Archbishop of Dublin Diarmuid Martin.
Music by Paddy Keenan and Sharon Ward.
Message of hope from Mags Casey, Chairperson of NTMHN.

Tree Presentation Ceremony by President Michael D. Higgins.
Time to be confirmed. Ceremony will take place in the Áras an Uachtaráin

Community Events: Members of the Traveller community, Traveller groups and supporters are asked to plant, make, draw or decorate a tree with messages of hope, prayers for those who have passed or wishes for the future throughout the day.
