

EXCHANGE HOUSE IRELAND

National Travellers Service

Exchange House Ireland National Travellers Service is the largest front line Traveller specific service in Ireland. We are an organisation of Traveller and non-Traveller people working together to provide services to Traveller families, and Traveller young people and children and Traveller men and women, many of whom are in crisis. We pride ourselves in working with some of the most marginalised members of the Traveller community.

Exchange House Ireland now wishes to recruit a Part-time Youth Worker

Who will be working to establish relationships with young Traveller females and to support them in taking an active part in their own community and wider society; delivering youth work programmes to young Travellers between the ages of 10 - 21 on a face-to-face basis; as part of a team of youth workers working under the direction of the Children and Young Peoples' Service Manager.

Hours of work will be 20 hours per week normally. This time will be broken up over three evening sessions and two mornings. 60% of this time will be spent with the young people.

The salary will be as per CDYSB Youth Worker scale commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Application Form and job description/person specification is available on www.exchangehouse.ie or call the Personnel Administrator on (01) 872 1094.
